Use Google Docs to play Pictionary

- Invite friends
- Set the rules
- Take turns drawing
- Make your best guess!
- Erase your drawing for the next person
- Play again!

Before the game starts, use the chat function to...

- Decide if you want to play for points, or just play for fun!
- Pick how many rounds you want to play and pick a theme for each round.
  - For example - Round 1: Animals, Round 2: Movies, Round 3: Foods
- Choose how much time each player gets to draw their picture.

How to Play Pictionary using Google Docs

1. Open a new Google Drawing (you will have to sign into your Google account, or you can sign up!).
2. Click the “Share” share button at the top right corner to invite one or more people to join the game.
3. Select the scribble tool to create your drawings!
4. Use the arrow tool to select your drawings and then hit delete or backspace on your keyboard to erase for the next player’s turn.

This version of Pictionary is open for players to make up their own “house rules,” so you can make up your own point system, or you don’t have to have one at all. It’s up to you!

Make it as easy or as challenging as you want. Use a variety of tools to create your drawings!

Erase your drawing by clicking the arrow tool and selecting the image you want to delete
